New Syllabus

1. Read the following paragraphs and answer the questions that follow:

A sweetmeat seller called out, 'gulab-jamun, rosgulla, buffi, jalebi', at the corner of the entrance, and a crowd pressed round his counter. The child stared open-eyed and his mouth watered for the 'burfi', which was his favourite sweet.

'I want that burfi', he slowly murmured. But he knew that nobody would give any importance to his request, so without waiting for an answer, he moved on.

A man stood holding a pole with yellow, red, green and purple balloons flying from it. The child had an overwhelming desire to possess them all. But he knew his parents would never buy him the balloons, because they would say he was too old to play with them, so he walked on.

A juggler stood playing a flute to a snake which coiled itself in a basket. Its head was raised in a graceful bend like the neck of a swan. The child went towards the juggler. But knowing his parents had forbidden him to hear such coarse music as the jugglers play, he proceeded further away.

(a) Complete the following chart with information from the text: 2×6=12

2. Read the following poem and answer the questions that follow.

Loveliest of trees, the cherry now
Is hung with bloom along the bough,
And stands about the woodland ride
Wearing white for Eastertide.

Now, of my threescore years and ten,
Twenty will not come again,
And take from seventy springs a score,
It only leaves me fifty more.
And since to look at things in bloom
Fifty springs are little room,
About the woodlands I will go
To see the cherry hung with snow.

(a) Answer the following questions very briefly : $2 \times 4 = 8$

(i) Name the poem and the poet.

(ii) Why does the poet describe the cherry tree as "wearing white"?

(iii) Explain the meaning of "Eastertide".

(iv) Why does the poet say "Twenty will not come again" ?

[Reading Comprehension (Unseen)]3. Read the text below and answer the following questions:

Each July 1, on Doctor's Day, India recognises the significant accomplishments of doctors for their efforts towards a healthier society. The day reminds you of the role that doctors play in your lives; their commitment and sincerity—from simple treatment of illnesses to saving human lives.

The day is observed as a tribute to Dr Bidhan Chandra Roy, a humane physician and a distinguished freedom fighter. It was in 1991 that the Government of India recognised this day being the birth and death anniversary of Dr Roy. The day is celebrated across the nation with several programmes organised by NGOs (Non-government organisations), pharmaceutical companies and medical associations.

This year, the Association of Medical Consultants along with the Indian Medical Associations, has organised a blood donation drive to celebrate Doctor's Day. The campaign will be held in 28 centres across the city and doctors, relatives and friends will all donate blood.

Celebrating Doctor's Day can renew the bond between patients and doctors and help restore mutual respect and trust. It is a reminder and an acknowledgement of this special relationship. It would be a pleasure for a doctor to meet a patient who has time to say "Thank You". This is the best gift that you can give your doctor on Doctor's Day. (Adapted from The Times of India—July 1, 2009)
